

Code of Conduct

LOCAL GOVERNMENT
PROFESSIONALS
AUSTRALIA, NSW

April 2016

Code of Conduct

Principles:

This Code of Conduct is a set of guidelines aimed to assist LG Professionals, NSW members operate at the highest level as an LG Professionals, NSW member (representative of the local government profession.)

Members should:

1. Have a commitment to the notion of public service as a means of contributing to community wellbeing in context of effective and democratic local government
2. Comply with the laws of Australia and operate within the spirit of those laws
3. Operate with honesty, propriety and integrity in all their professional duties, especially with others
4. Value and uphold the image and interests of LG Professionals, NSW, actively promoting it as their professional member association
5. Have a commitment to increase the professionalism of themselves and others within local government
6. Not to have any conflict of interest or receive personal gain when asked to represent LG Professionals, NSW interests
7. Act with professionalism when representing LG Professionals, NSW, including online media and not use their position to unduly influence others
8. Behave with the upmost professionalism and with respect to all members and staff at all LG Professionals, NSW events, programs and online media
9. Comply with the communications protocol issued by LG Professionals, NSW to describe the standards of communications between all LG Professionals, NSW stakeholders.

Original Issue Date: 6 December 2013
Revision	8 April 2016
Responsible Officer	CEO